

Monthly Theme: I'm a Victory Kid

"God is with you always." Matthew 28:20

LESSON - GOD KNOWS ME!

Hey Victory Kids! (Hold up name tag with name on it)

Do you know what your name means? Maybe you have a short name or a long one. Maybe people sometimes call you by your nickname. But guess what? Before anyone ever gave you a name, God already knew it! That's right—God knew your name before you were even born. That means He knows everything about you, and He loves you so much!

Before you were born, before you could talk, crawl, or even cry—God already knew all about you! He knew your name, your smile, your favorite colors, and even your laugh! He had a special plan just for your life. That means you are super special to God.

DO IT: Point to yourself and say your name.

SAY IT: Now say this, God knows me! God knows my name!

You are so special that God thought about you first! Before your mommy even knew you were growing in her tummy, God already knew you. He had a plan just for YOU! Just like when you draw a picture—you already have an idea of what it will look like. God had a special idea when He made you.

DO IT: Make a heart with your hands.

SAY IT: God planned me with love!

Not only did God plan you with love. God also has big plans for you! You are not too small for God's Big plans. In the Bible, God talked to a boy named Jeremiah about a very big plan that He had for him. But Jeremiah thought, "I'm just a kid!" But God said, "Don't say that! I made you for something special!" "I chose you before you were born!" You're never too little for God to use you. Even if you're small, God has a big plan for your life!

DO IT: Stand up tall and stretch your arms to the sky.

SAY IT: I can do big things with God! (now take your seats)

PRAYER: Dear God, thank You for knowing my name, my heart, and my favorite things. Thank You for making me special and having a plan for me. I love You. In Jesus' Name, Amen.
